

Trauma-informed Bible Studies

"Consider It. Take Counsel. Speak Out." Judges 19:30

2-4 week Bible Studies tailored for your faith community that center scripture and conversation around Christian responses to gender-based violence.

- Trauma and the Bible: Shared Stories of our Ancestors
- Lament: When Prophets Weep
- Church Response to Sexual Violence, Domestic Violence, or Elder Abuse
- Repentance & Restoration
- Law and Gospel: God's Voice in Scripture
- Here We Stand, A Lutheran Response to Child Abuse

Proceeds will support ministry workshops around child abuse recognition and response for ELCA churches, aligned with the guidance in the ELCA social message on Child Protection.

Through the generosity of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, Katie's Grant, no congregation will be turned away due to financial inability. Zoom capabilities are possible for those outside Ohio.

About the Facilitator

Staci Stought is a retired Sexual Assault Police Officer with specialized forensic expertise in Child Abuse. She currently serves as the Pastoral Care Minister at Messiah Lutheran Church in Reynoldsburg, and is completing her Masters of Divinity at Luther Seminary.
